Port in Mykonos 4:00 PM - 11:00 PM

Our first port will be Mykonos. There is no Greek island more synonymous with carefree times. In Mykonos you'll find some of the most amazing beaches around and a cosmopolitan vibe you simply won't find anywhere else. The main town, Chora, is famous for its winding lanes lined with gleaming white cubiform houses with painted blue doors and sophisticated shops and restaurants, but beyond the town, Mykonos retains a refreshingly bucolic atmosphere.

Port in Kusadasi 7:00 AM - 12:30 PM / Port in Patmos 4:00 PM - 9:00 PM

In the great atlas of Mediterranean antiquity, few cities shone as bright as Ephesus, where Paul taught the Ephesians, near the port of Kusadasi. Next is Patmos. It could be called the Jerusalem of the Aegean, but Patmos is the custodian of an exceptional cultural heritage. It is the island where John the Apostle wrote the Book of Revelation, the final book of the New Testament. This starring role in the Bible imbues the island with an unmistakable spiritual calm that makes it truly unique in the Mediterranean and a magnet for the Christian faith.

Port in Santorini 7:00 AM - 8:00 PM

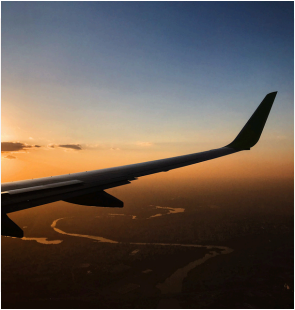

Few islands have the power to captivate the way Santorini does. Gorgeous and cosmopolitan, it's famous for that classic Greek island look with white painted houses clustered along narrow winding lanes, perched atop reddish-black volcanic cliffs that tumble down more than a thousand feet to the wide caldera. It's easy to see how this island, the pearl of the Cycladic archipelago, can lay claim to being the source of the legend of Atlantis, either. Santorini, or "Thera" in Greek, is most celebrated for the dramatic views of its volcanic caldera, formed during a massive eruption around 1646 B.C. That eruption shook up the island—making its center actually collapse—but also created some of the most spectacular scenery in the world.
